Let's Talk About It 2017

The Jazz Age... Charleston and Beyond

The Let's Talk About It series will begin in February 2017 with books to be distributed in the middle of January.

Book distribution will begin with priority being given to current Chapin Memorial Library card holders on Tuesday-Saturday, January 17-21, 2017.

For those without a CML library card, open registration will begin on Monday, January 23, 2017, on a first come, first served basis. Please bring a picture ID to check out LTAI books if you do not have a current CML library card.

This year's program is going to be a bit more varied than our previous LTAI programs. The Jazz Age... will consist of books, a movie, and lectures to be held on Thursdays and musical events to be held in the early evenings of Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The exact dates for the program will be posted inside the library, on our website at www.chapinlibrary.org, and on social media at the first of the new year.
